THE DURBAN RAMBLERS CLUB

EASTER CAMP, 1954

PLACE: GIANT'S CASTLE, NATAL.
DATES: 16th April, 1954 to 19th April, 1954 inclusive.
COST: Paid-up Members - £2.15. -d.
Visitors - £3. 5. -d.

TRANSPORT: Lorries will leave Durban (City Market Parking Area) ~~on Thursday~~ night at 8.30 p.m. SHARP. Please be there by 7.45 p.m. at the latest to enable the boys to have plenty of time for packing.

CAMP SITE: After turning off at Mooi River and travelling for about 170 miles in all from Durban, we come across the Camp Site which is situated in a valley and surrounded by trees with a crystal clear stream running through it. The countryside is ideal for hiking and for the less energetic ones there are some lovely pools for swimming, as well as a natural "Shower" not half a mile down stream. We shall be having our usual Camp Fire Sing-Songs and then there are also special attractions, including "Moonlight Hikes", that will appeal to all. So come along and enjoy a wonderful week-end.

KIT: It can get "mighty cold" in the evenings, especially during our all-night travel to the Berg, so bring some warm clothes. You will need at least 2 blankets (unless, of course, you are one of those lucky ones with a "Sleeping Bag") a Ground Sheet, Personal Kit and, of course your "Eating Irons", otherwise you starve!!!!!! An old Raincoat and extra pair of shoes is advisable.
NOTE: ALL PERSONS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN KIT, SO PLEASE SEE YOU STAY WITH IT UNTIL IT HAS BEEN LOADED ON TO THE LORRIES.

NAMES: Unfortunately our number has been restricted to 60, so Paid-up Members will have priority and Visitors will only be able to come along if vacancies permit. Please fill in and sign the attached form and return it, together with the full amount, to the Treasurer (Rae Adams) before Sunday the 4th April. PLEASE NOTE: NO NAMES WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER THIS DATE.
